Local Forecast

Partly cloudy and warmer tonight and Friday; probably with rain in northwest portion.

Dr. and Mrs. D. H. Woolf of Kansas City, were in town today. Mr. and Mrs. Woolf are touring the United States afoot, accompanied by a big collie dog and carrying their baggage on a cart, drawn by a sturdy pony. Mr. Woolf, who was in business in Kansas City, was compelled some years ago to go out in the open to preserve his health, since which time he and his wife have crossed and recrossed the United States several times. They have traveled 21,000 miles together. They left Kansas City on their last trip in April, and are now on their way to Tampa, from where they will start for Portland, Maine. Mr. Woolf looks hale and hearty and Mrs. Woolf does not seem to have ever had a day's sickness in her life. They attracted much attention here. Their cart and its luggage was almost hidden by the hundreds of labels that have been attached to it in their journeyings.

The sheriff is thinking of making a deputy out of Mr. D. C. Stiles, cashier of the Commercial Bank. A negro named Louis Scott tried to pass a bum check on the Commercial this morning, whereupon Mr. Stiles grabbed him by the neck, rushed him over to the courthouse and turned him over to the officers.

Among the charges made by Freeman against his wife are:
